CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

While client satisfaction remains at the heart of their operations, Phoenix Voyages also has a strong commitment to giving back. Through the Phoenix Voyages Foundation, the company supports numerous social, cultural, and environmental charitable projects. These efforts demonstrate the company's dedication to the development and well-being of the local communities they work within.

This brochure presents Phoenix Voyages as a globally connected, client-focused, and socially responsible company, with a knowledgeable and multilingual team dedicated to delivering top-tier travel experiences across Asia.

MandaLao Elephant Conservation Center - Laos

Known as the “Land of a Million Elephants” (Lane Xang in Laotian), Laos opened a center for the conservation of these animals in 2016, which is the first unmounted elephant sanctuary in Luang Prabang. It aims to create a home for these dear creatures, offering them a dignified and comfortable life in harmony with nature, without depriving visitors of interaction with the pachyderms.

Our Contribution - As part of its commitment to wildlife conservation, Phoenix Voyages provides financial support to the MandaLao Elephant Conservation Center.

Paul Dubrule School - Cambodia

Founded in 2002, the École d'Hôtellerie et Tourisme Paul Dubrule is a NGO and the personal initiative of Mr. Paul Dubrule, co-founder of the ACCOR Hotel Group. Its mission is to provide innovative and professional education to young underprivileged Cambodians in the hotel and tourism sector. It offers practical programs to prepare students for careers in hospitality, cooking, hotel management and tourism.

Our Contribution - Phoenix Voyages has supported this school for several years and has already financed the tuition fees of several students. Throughout the year, Phoenix Voyages introduces its clients to the school. Clients can have lunch at the school's restaurant, where young students practice their skills.

Saint-Paul de Chartres Orphanage - Vietnam

For over 20 years, the sisters of the Saint-Paul de Chartres Congregation have taken charge of the Hué orphanage, founded in 1889. Located on the banks of the Perfume River, the orphanage takes in street children, the infirm, the abandoned and orphans. Their aim is to give these children a good education, so as to offer them the possibility of a better future.

Our Contribution - Since 2005, Phoenix Voyages has contributed to the well-being of the children during the festive season, offering them a range of gifts as well as a stock of food and drinks.

OUR TEAM

With over 25 years of expertise in the travel industry, Phoenix Voyages is a leading Destination Management Company (DMC) in Asia. We specialize in providing tailor-made travel solutions, offering exceptional services for both leisure and events. Our dedicated team ensures seamless planning and execution, making each journey a unique and unforgettable experience.
